

INTRODUCTION
ORDINATION TO DIACONATE
RYAN ANDREW
DECEMBER 22, 2017

In this season, we celebrate the coming of Jesus among us – the long awaited Savior of the world. From very accessible, humble origins his pathway leads to fulfillment of the Father’s Will. Central to the achievement of this and key to Christ’s identity is his servanthood. He comes to serve the needs of all.

Extending the presence of Christ in a tangible, incarnational manner, we gather to ordain Ryan Andrew as deacon of the Church. The deacon is one whose identity is servant.

Those of us who know Ryan well and are privileged to call him friend realize that the ordination rite confirms who he already is: A kind, open-hearted servant filled with compassion and energy dedicated to accompany others on their life journey.

We are grateful and blessed to be with him on this occasion.
