

Advent Faith Conversations:

The Second Week of Advent

Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths.

-- From this week's Sunday Gospel: Matthew 3:1-12

Adult reflection for this week

This week, the theme of our Sunday readings calls us to prepare for Jesus' coming. While there's overlap from last week, this is another facet: first, consciousness, and now active preparation. Oh, we're usually active alright this time of year! But don't be fooled. What if the active part was actually about quieting ourselves and practicing an interior posture to receive? A letting go, so that God himself can actively prepare the way, his way, in our hearts. . . and through us, to the world?

Family daily conversation and prayer starters

Darken the room and light two purple candles, saying, "Jesus, you are the Light of the World." Everyone responds, "Let your light shine in our darkness." After each day's conversation, pray the prayer together on the second page (print so everyone has a mini-sheet) and sing "O Come, O Come Emmanuel."

Sunday, December 4

What kinds of things do we prepare for? (tests, games, meals, meetings, vacations, guests, etc.) What actions are involved? What "in-actions" get us ready? (resting, clearing our minds to focus, listening, etc.)

Monday, December 5

Preparation is gradual. Do you like the process or do you wish you could get right to the "event"? How does the outcome, or your experience of the "event" depend on your preparation beforehand? Are you putting shoes out for St. Nicholas' tomorrow?

Tuesday, December 6

Sit in the dark a minute. What does it make you think and feel? (Now light the candles.) We often think of darkness as something scary, lonely, and to be avoided. When is it helpful? What can we learn from it? (Appreciating light, heightening awareness, learning to trust, rest, etc.) Jesus is the Light, but we can also find him when in darkness. After the prayer, add: St. Nicholas, pray for us.

Wednesday, December 7

Wise preparation starts with the end in mind. What is the "end goal" of Advent—what are we preparing for? What's the end goal of life? How does this guide our preparations and our daily living? After the prayer, add: St. Ambrose, pray for us.

Thursday, December 8

Have you ever thought about Advent/spiritual "preparation" not so much as your work, but rather God's work in you? Today we celebrate how God prepared Mary for welcoming Jesus. How is God preparing you? After the prayer, add: Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us.

Friday, December 9

In week 1, we talked about God's coming to us each day. How do we actively "prepare the way of the Lord" in our day so that we can recognize his presence and welcome—not block—him? After the prayer, add: St. Juan Diego, pray for us.

Saturday, December 10

God always works in/for the individual, but in the context of a people, a community. His coming is not just for us, but for the whole world, as the end of Sunday's first reading from Isaiah reminded us. How can we prepare the way for his coming into the lives of those around us — those who know him and those who don't?

Print and cut one out for each family member.

Week 2 Prayer

Merciful God, use our daily circumstances to help us see and welcome your coming. You prepare the way in our hearts, in your way. Amen.

Sing together:

O come, O come, Thou Lord of Might
Who to Thy tribes, on Sinai's height
In ancient times didst give the law
In cloud, and majesty and awe.

Rejoice, rejoice, Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel

O come, Thou Rod of Jesse, free
Thine own from Satan's tyranny
From depths of hell Thy people save
And give them victory o'er the grave.
(Refrain)
