

All Saints Day Litany of Petitions

11-1-2017

Presider: Many holy people have walked before us, showing us the way to love and serve others just as Christ did. We pray today with them, as well live together in the body of Christ.

Reader: Tonight we will respond by saying the Saint's name and asking them to pray for us. Please repeat the last line that I will say---

Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, you shared your gift of teaching and taught many young people to know and love God. Saint Elizabeth Ann pray for us.

All: Saint Elizabeth Ann, pray for us.

Reader: Saint Martin de Porres, you shared your gift of generosity, serving the poor. Saint Martin, pray for us.

All: Saint Martin pray for us.

Reader: Saint Therese, you shared your gift of prayer, spending time alone and in community praying and serving others. Saint Theresa pray for us.

All: Saint Therese, pray for us.

Reader: Saint Patrick you share your gift of storytelling to lead many to God. Saint Patrick pray for us.

All: Saint Patrick pray for us.

Reader: Saint Jude, you shared your gift of trust in the Holy Spirit with many. Saint Jude pray for us.

All: Saint Jude pray for us.

Reader: Saint Joseph you witnessed to great faith and trust as you journeyed with Mary and Jesus. Saint Joseph, pray for us

All: Saint Joseph pray for us

Reader: Saint John the Baptist, you prepared the way for Jesus. Saint John pray for us.

All: Saint John pray for us

Reader: Saint Joan of Arc, you shared your gift of leadership to lead people to freedom. Saint Joan pray for us.

All: Saint Joan pray for us.

Reader: St. Francis, you shared the gift of loving all of God's creatures by calling them sisters and brothers. St. Francis pray for us

All: St. Francis pray for us.

Reader: Our Lady of the Holy Rosary, our parish patron saint, may we say "Yes" to God as you did throughout your life. Our Lady of the Holy Rosary pray for us.

All: Our Lady of the Holy Rosary pray for us.

Presider: We ask all these prayers through Jesus Christ, who is our Savior and Lord forever and ever. Amen.