Meet Monica Morrison, assistant principal at Holy Trinity Catholic School. Morrison comes to Holy Trinity from Christ the King School in Des Moines having served as an academic interventionist supporting faculty in meeting the needs of children facing academic challenges. With nearly 20 years educational experience, Morrison is adept at designing and implementing accommodation plans and applying data analysis to support student growth and achievement.

"Working at a Catholic Schools gives me the opportunity to work with a faith-based community that is supportive of educating the whole student through faith, academics, and social-emotional learning," said Morrison.

She earned a Master's Degree in Educational Leadership from Creighton University and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education from the University of Iowa. She holds endorsements in Early Childhood Education, Reading and as an Instructional Strategist.

Morrison is the proud parent of David (13), Daniel (11), and Evie (5). Her extended family including her parents, sister and her sister's family all reside in Des Moines. When she's not at school, she enjoys hiking, time at the beach, and watching movies, and spending time with her entire family.
