Catholic Schools Policies/Regulations

ADMINISTRATION

Religious Formation

It shall be the policy of the Diocesan Catholic Schools Office, under the aegis of the Bishop, that administrators and teachers in Catholic schools receive consistent and ongoing religious faith development. It is the responsibility of the employer to financially support the ongoing religious faith development for the administrators and teachers.

The Schools Office, with the Department of Evangelization and Catechesis, will coordinate faith formation opportunities which are designed to provide growth and support.
