ADMINISTRATION

Steps Involved for a Possible Major Change in a School Operation or Academic Programs

It shall be the policy of the Diocesan Catholic Schools Board that any major change in the operation or academic programs of a school must be approved by the pastor (canonical administrator), the local board of education/school board, and the Diocesan Schools Board and referred to the Bishop for final approval prior to the enactment of the change.

The approval of the Diocesan Catholic Schools Board will be considered only after completion of the processes and steps contained in Regulation 326.1.
