

Meet Elizabeth Brott

Meet Elizabeth Brott, an administrator at Holy Trinity Catholic School. Brott brings more than 8 years of educational experience from both public and Catholic schools to the role of assistant principal. Since 2014, she has served as the middle school social studies teacher at Holy Trinity and also served on a number of instructional leadership committees designed to improve student outcomes.

She will complete her Master's degree in Educational Leadership from Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska this May and earned her Bachelor of Science in History with a minor in Political Science from Iowa State University. She holds a State of Iowa Standard Teaching License, is pursuing a State of Iowa Administrative License and is endorsed in 5-12th grade social studies from the University of Iowa.

"As someone who grew up in a small town, I greatly value the sense of community that I have experienced during my time at Holy Trinity," said Brott. "Holy Trinity is blessed to have such supportive families and parishioners. I look forward to serving this community in this new role and taking this journey together."

Brott will assume her role at Holy Trinity Catholic School effective July 1, 2021.
