THE YEAR OF GRACE 2022: A LITURGICAL CALENDAR

This year's calendar for 2021 presents the intense and lively art of Laura James, drawing us into her illustration of five Scripture passages that offer inspiration and insight about the mystery of death and our Christian hope for eternal life—for us, our loved ones, and all of creation. At the center, we see what the author of the Book of Revelation saw when he was taken by the Spirit to see the heavenly scene that is described in chapter 4: God enthroned, overseeing all, surrounded by twenty-four elders, the Lamb (Christ), and four winged beasts that came to symbolize the four books of the Gospel. In this glimpse of the heavenly liturgy at the end of time, all are praising God and the Lamb. In the upper left corner of the calendar, Michael the Archangel weighs the souls of those recently raised from the dead. In the upper right, the shepherd from Psalm 23 leads the sheep through green pastures, beside still waters and spreads a table before them. At the lower right we see Isaiah's prophecy (in chapter 25) of a great banquet on a holy mountain where tears are wiped away and death is no more. Finally at the lower left, the artist illustrates the metaphor from John 4 of a grain of wheat falling and dying in order to produce much fruit—an image of the Paschal mystery—the foundation of our hope in salvation. All of these scenes reassure us that God is in control, that justice will reign in the end, and that we and the entire world can be transformed and redeemed in God's love.

A WORKBOOK FOR LECTORS AND GOSPEL READERS

Workbook for Lectors, Gospel Readers, and Proclaimers of the Word® provides the continuous instruction, and advice, that ministers who proclaim the Word of God need. It assists them in preparing their assigned reading on specific occasions, and when they read the resource every week as a way of reflecting on and learning about the Scriptures, it strengthens their proclamation skills and deepens their spiritual lives.

This resource contains the readings in large print for practice (with suggestions for emphasis in bold) commentaries that give background and explain the meaning of the reading, margin notes with pronunciation helps and tips for proclamation, and the Responsorial Psalms for meditation and context. Workbook's introduction offers an orientation to this ministry of the Word and an overview of proclamation skills.

AT HOME WITH THE WORD

At Home with the Word® guides you to a deeper understanding of the Sunday Scriptures, providing the readings for this liturgical year, insights from Scripture scholars, and action steps. (Additional reflection questions and action steps for families, Christian Initiation, and adult faith-sharing groups may be downloaded from the LTP Website.) The book also includes prayers and citations for weekday readings. Bulk pricing makes At Home with the Word® an economical resource to provide for large groups.

The covers of At Home with the Word® are telling the story of salvation history through eight colorful episodes that depict the unfolding relationship between humanity and the Triune God — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The series began in 2017 with creation; continued in 2018 with God's covenant with Abraham, and in 2019 with Moses leading the people across the dry bed of the Red Sea. This year's cover portrays Ezekiel's vision in the valley of the dry bones. Future years will show John the Baptist baptizing the Lord, Mary Magdalene running to tell the disciples the news of the Resurrection, Christ returning to his Father at the Ascension, and the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Artist Cody F. Miller created the scenes of the covenant with Abraham and Pentecost. William Hernandez painted the vision from Ezekiel, and James B. Janknegt has contributed the other five.

LITURGY AND APPOINTMENT CALENDAR

This calendar helps you celebrate the liturgy each day! The calendar works like a mini-ordo—each day includes the liturgical observance (i.e., First Sunday of Advent, memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows, etc.), the readings from the Daily Mass with citations from the Lectionary for Mass, the proper liturgical colors, as well as the psalter for the Liturgy of the Hours.

The calendar also includes other Catholic events and observances such as Holy Days of Obligation, First Friday and Saturday devotions, popular novenas, USCCB national and international collections, Catechetical Sunday, Respect Life Sunday, and World Youth Day (among many, many others). Secular and other religious observances are noted as well.
