

Children's Daily Prayer For the School Year 2020-21

This annual helps to guide children in schools and religious education in a daily service of communal prayer that follows the pattern of the Church's Morning Prayer. Scripture readings from the evangelist for the year have been selected to help children become familiar with important Scripture stories and themes. In addition there are prayers for before meals and at the end of the day, as well as prayer services for the liturgical seasons and special feasts, and reproducible prayer services for children to take home to their families to celebrate occasions when they are not in school.

Cost is $10.00 (discounted from $15)

Blessings and Prayers through the Year: A Resource for School and Parish (with 2 music CDs)

Blessings and Prayers through the Year is a beautiful hardcover book with a full-color interior and a ribbon to mark your page. It offers numerous prayers, blessings, and rituals for all of the occasions and needs that arise in school, parish, and family life. Included are 2 CDs, one with music and vocals to teach the songs and the other with musical accompaniment only. There are also music pages for teaching and playing in groups. Classes can begin using this valuable resource at any time during the year.

Elizabeth McMahon Jeep is also the author of the very popular Children's Daily Prayer.

Cost is $35.00 (discounted from $49.95)

Children's Liturgy of the Word For the School Year 2020-21

The essential guide for prayer leaders who facilitate a separate Liturgy of the Word with children on Sundays and Holydays of Obligation. It provides an understanding of the origins and practice of this liturgy; an overview of the order of service and the role of the prayer leader; practical suggestions for leading prayer, navigating the Lectionary, preparing the liturgical environment; and much more.

Cost is $21.00 (discounted from $30)

Year of Grace Liturgical Calendar 2021 Illustrated by Brock Nicol

This year's calendar for 2021 presents the intense and lively art of Laura James, drawing us into her illustrations of five Scripture passages that offer inspiration and insight about the mystery of death and our Christian hope for eternal life—for us, our loved ones, and all of creation. At the center, we see what the author of the Book of Revelation saw when he was taken by the Spirit to see the heavenly scene that is described in chapter 4: God enthroned, overseeing all, surrounded by twenty-four elders, the Lamb (Christ), and four winged beasts that came to symbolize the four books of the Gospel. In this glimpse of the heavenly liturgy at the end of time, all are praising God and the Lamb. In the upper left corner of the calendar, Michael the Archangel weighs the souls of those recently raised from the dead. In the upper right, the shepherd from Psalm 23 leads the sheep through green pastures, beside still waters, and spreads a table before them. At the lower right we see Isaiah's prophecy (in chapter 25) of a great banquet on a holy mountain where tears are wiped away and death is no more. Finally at the lower left, the artist illustrates the metaphor from John 12:24 of a grain of wheat falling and dying in order to produce much fruit—an image of the Paschal mystery—the foundation of our hope in salvation. All of these scenes reassure us that God is in control, that justice will reign in the end, and that we and the entire world can be transformed and redeemed in God's love. The liturgical year 2021 follows the Sunday Year B cycle and the Weekday Year I cycle, beginning on November 29, 2020 (First Sunday of Advent) and ending on Saturday, November 27, 2021.

Use the Year of Grace calendar in many ways:

- Give (or sell) one to every household in the parish and school.
- Hang one in every classroom, meeting room, and in the church vestibule to teach about the liturgical year.
Assign students to report on specific liturgical days.
- Present calendars to first communicants and Confirmation candidates.
